GLENVIEW COMMUNITY CHURCH

NOVEMBER 10, 2010

A Pilgrim's Progress

Through the years several of our young adults have sought a variety of ways to use their gifts, energy and passion to make a difference in people's lives. Some have served or are serving in the Peace Corps or other organizations whose mission it is to make life better for people in various parts of the world.

One of our recent college graduates, Karen McGee, is embarking on such an adventure in December. Here, in her own words, is a brief description of what Karen will be doing.

"At the end of December, I will be moving to Namibia to work full-time as a teacher through a program called WorldTeach. Since its independence in 1990, this sparsely populated country has worked tirelessly to overhaul the education system and overcome the consequences of apartheid. I am thrilled to have the opportunity to serve in a country that so desperately needs eager teachers in its most remote schools. My journey to committing to WorldTeach in Namibia has been full of careful reflection, prayer, and encouragement from mentors and dear friends. It has been sweet to see God move so clearly in my life as he gives me a heart as passion, and the gifts to work with the people in Namibia. As I've grown up at GCC, I have been tremendously grateful for the church's support and encouragement. If you are interested in learning more about my journey or would like to support me financially, please email me at karen.eliz.mcgee@gmail.com or visit my blog at karenemcgee.blogspot.com. Please keep Namibia and WorldTeach in your prayers in 2011. Kalunga ne me yambeke – God bless you all!"

I hope you will join me in continuing to give Karen the support and encouragement like she received as she was growing up and actively involved in the life and ministry of GCC. Keep her in your thoughts and prayers throughout her time in Namibia. Check out her blog and keep her e-mail address close at hand so you can send her a note periodically. As one who spent some time in another country in a similar activity before e-mail, I can tell you what a joy it was to get mail from friends. Now, with e-mail, it is even easier to keep in touch and Karen will be strengthened by your messages.

Howard

The Coffee Market Place

Rising Coffee prices have been triggered by ongoing speculation in coffee. Farmers' expenses have been rising for both agricultural supplies and the cost of labor. Extreme weather this year has decreased the amount of coffee available. This puts the co-ops (Equal Exchange is one) under pressure as some farmers leave the co-op to make private one-time deals. Co-ops support their members during the bad and good years, often paying a better price - but over the course of a year - after the harvest. Equal Exchange loans pre-harvest dollars to co-ops to mitigate this dynamic. Due to loss of crops from the private deals there is a reduced amount of organic beans to sell and a weakening of the co-op system. The current factors have led to a crisis - making it harder and more expensive to secure high quality, organic, fairly traded coffee beans.

Each of us feels the current economic crisis in varying ways. Sometimes we need to buy goods at the lowest cost to stay afloat. We are faced daily with choices and we have to make the best decision we can about all of them. We don't expect you to buy Equal Exchange products exclusively but hope you will make it a priority to come to our table and find a product you would like to try. We welcome new buyers and appreciate all of our long-time customers' unflagging support of this very worthy project. See you next in the Mayflower Room on Sunday, November 14th.

The Finance Board is in the process of preparing a preliminary budget and needs your response ASAP. At this point the funding requests for 2011 from the various Boards exceed the pledge response by over $40,000. That does not include the hoped for increase in insurance and cost of living increases for staff members. We ask for your support for the work and ministry of this church. We are counting on your pledge...Let us all unite for growth and renewal.

For those who have not yet pledged, please consider increasing your pledge. For those who have already pledged, if it is possible, please consider reissuing your pledge at a higher amount.
