OUR THESES

In this great celebration of the 500th Anniversary of the Protestant Reformation, the primary – and nearly the only – personality we’ve focused on is Martin Luther. As the story goes, the defining moment in this watershed movement came when Luther nailed his 95 theses to the Castle Church door in Wittenberg. These theses are intellectual propositions that were meant for academic debate. They became incendiary when the established church heard them as challenges and threats to its authority.

If Martin Luther is the most famous personality of the Reformation, his 95 theses are the printed cornerstone of that revolution. Curiously, we’ve spent little to no time studying those theses, let alone committing even one of them to memory! That’s understandable since they are 500 years old, and since they have no plot! Most of all, they’re an historical document, not a contemporary, compelling manifesto. They’re our heritage, not our heart.

One of the most revolutionary changes of the Reformation is that it made us all priests to one another. That means that the responsibility for mediating God’s love and making it palpably available is no longer the exclusive property of the clergy. Now it’s the common work of every Christian. So, on Reformation Sunday, I asked the Christians in our pews to write their own Reformation theses on red cards. This is the specific question that I asked:

How will you share God’s love with others in one new way, beginning today?

The answers are inspiring, humbling, and deeply moving. Here are just a few:

I will show more patience with a difficult neighbor.

I will be more present and in the moment vs. thinking about next steps.

I will look my neighbor in the eye and say “Hello!”

I will perform a random act of kindness to a stranger every day.

I will share a new way to love my neighbor in everyday actions of kindness.

I will never underestimate what someone else is going through, and how a smile and kind word can make a small difference.

I will seek out those in need and help them physically, financially, socially, and politically.

I will forgive and move ahead. I will forgive and reach out to those who act against me. I will love the unloved and lonely.

I will reach out to someone who is hurting or hated and tell them that they are loved by God and by me.

I will be open to those who have very different opinions.

I will seek to listen more and understand more than I seek to be heard and understood.

I will pray for my neighbors on my street.

I will work to understand racism and white privilege.

I will not join in putting anyone down, even _____.

I will help and love those I do not know and those I know but no longer love.

I will treat everyone with open, overt respect, one-on-one.

If you weren't in worship on October 29, don't breathe a premature sigh of relief because you're not off the hook! Take some time to write your Reformation theses right now...your commitment to begin sharing God's love with others in one new way, today.

GCC takes pride in being a congregational church. What we often mean by that is that every member gets a voice and a vote in decisions. But that's a partial and misshapen misunderstanding of what it means to be congregational. At its heart, congregational means exactly what Luther set forth 500 years ago. It means that we believe in the priesthood of all believers...that we are committed to being priests to one another...that the most central expression of our Christian faith is sharing God's love personally, specifically, and persuasively with others. If we aren't doing that as individual Christians, we are failing Christ. If we aren't doing that as a community of Christians, we are not Christ's living body. So hold on to the question:

How will you share God's love with others in one new way, beginning today?

Our answers are literally the difference between spiritual death and spiritual life! See you in church!

SPIRITUAL COUNCIL MEETING REPORT

OCTOBER 24, 2017

At its October meeting, the Spiritual Council received updates from the Construction Committee and Constitution Working Group, in addition to hearing from GCC's very active Ministries and pastors.

CONSTRUCTION COMMITTEE

The Spiritual Council approved the wording for the motion to be put before the congregation at the November 5 Special Congregational Meeting. This vote will permit us to move to the next two phases of the building project—Design Development and Construction Documents. The congregation will hold another meeting in spring 2018 to vote on the final step of starting construction. The aim is to break ground on or around June 1, 2018.

CONSTITUTION WORKING GROUP

The CWG has begun meeting to discuss refinements to the Interim Constitution and Bylaws, to be approved by the congregation in May 2019. Please contact CWG chair Bob McGee (bmcgee750@gmail.com) with any comments you might have about the Constitution; feedback from all members of the congregation is welcome. The Spiritual Council will be working in conjunction with the CWG to develop a GCC Policy Handbook that will help guide Ministries and Teams as they work within the framework of the finalized Constitution.

MINISTRY REPORTS

All five Ministries continue to welcome volunteers for teams and team leadership. The Outreach Ministry is coordinating a church-wide service project at Feed My Starving Children on November 25. Look for sign-up information in the Bulletin and other church publications. The Women's Association has extended personal invitations to the female members of GCC and will continue to reach out to new members.

TREASURER'S REPORT

September pledge fulfillment was low, putting us behind budget for revenues by $4,000 for the year to date. Our expenses are favorable to budget, but we are still in a deficit position and relying on reserve funds.

PASTORS' REPORTS

Elizabeth noted strong youth attendance at PYF meetings and other church events. Pam reported that she has spoken with visitors who mentioned how welcome they feel at GCC. Chuck expressed gratitude to all the people who put so much time and energy into keeping GCC operational. He also gives thanks for the opportunities he has had this year to talk about the Reformation as an historical revolution and as an ongoing process, because God's spirit is always new.

STEWARDSHIP SUNDAY IS NOVEMBER 12!

Your generous pledge makes things happen at GCC! From our Adult and Youth Ministries to Congregational Care and Mission Outreach, your generous pledge of 5% of your income makes it all possible. Help us break a MILLION dollars...and let's do it by November 12!

JANUARY 26-28, 2018

This year we are going to the new Delta Hotel Chicago North Shore (Marriott) 1400 Milwaukee Ave in Glenview. Registration forms and more information will be available later in November. Mark your calendar now and invite a friend to join you!

THE RESALE SHOP

The Resale Shop, started after World War II by women of GCC, is a favorite shop for many! If you are a member of the church and haven't paid us a visit, what are you waiting for? We may become your favorite shop! Profits are distributed by your women's association to local charities helping mainly women and children.

CONSTRUCTION COMMITTEE UPDATES

You asked and we listened! Here is an easy way to stay up to date on what the construction committee is working on. Go to this link: <https://goo.gl/q17fM2>. It will take you to a Google Docs folder. That folder has the 3D drawings and updates from our meetings. We will update this folder every two weeks. You will also see how you can contact the committee with your design questions. As we work to finalize the design and our budget, we appreciate your comments and feedback.

MINISTRY 101: OUTREACH

What is the Outreach Ministry? It is GCC's outlet into the Glenview Community and into the Greater Chicago Area. The Outreach Ministry partners with organizations to develop programs to help make GCC a welcoming place where everyone can find faith and fellowship. Let's take a look at the 6 Teams that make up the Outreach Ministry:

MISSIONS ALLOCATIONS TEAM – leads the review of donations and determines how best to allocate them. Projects include Agency mission partner outreach, review of proposed grants and development of final allocations for Spiritual Council approval. Team lead Marvin Johnson, marvinj31@hotmail.com.

There are additional projects throughout the year. Team lead, Kara Clark, 847-942-2386 or kara.l.clark@comcast.net.

FAITH IN ACTION TEAM - facilitates activities to help ensure social justice and to celebrate diversity within the church and the community. Team lead, Betsy Martin 847-657-7595 or betsywisemartin@att.net.

AWARENESS AND INVITATION TEAM – works to reach out to potential new church members by developing activities with the Communication Team and other Ministries. Provides potential members with a sense of what GCC stands for, leads efforts to welcome visitors and sends follow-up communication. Team leads Kara Clark, 847-942-2386 or Barb Pollak, 847-729-1030.

GCC NURSERY SCHOOL TEAM – looks for opportunities to connect with GCC Nursery School parents by working with the Board to develop engagement activities. Team lead Susan Johns, susanijohns@mac.com.

"People love the feeling of community and contribution they get from participating in Outreach Activities," says Linda Crowder, Outreach Ministry Chair. "Our group is very approachable. You don't need to sign up for everything – only as much as you can!"

Join the conversation, get involved and make a difference! Contact the team leads mentioned above or Linda Crowder at 847-922-6827.

Look for "Ministry 101" in the next issue as we explore another Ministry Group in depth!

Dystopias—Anti-Utopias

Instructor: Jim Kenney
November 15. $10.00.

George Orwell did it so well (especially in Animal Farm and 1984) that we now use the term "Orwellian" to name eras in which an ominous political malaise undermines civil (and civilizing) society. Aldous Huxley brought a very chilling perspective to his epic Brave New World. More recently, Margaret Atwood has given us The Handmaid's Tale, with extraordinary insights into the subjugation of women under a totalitarian "theocracy." All three help us in our current struggle to understand fear and hope.

HUDDLES

Huddles (Adult Small Groups) are forming, and we want YOU to join one of our three groups that center around these exciting topics: Cooking Through the Bible, Drinks and Theology, or Urban Entry: Video Series.

If interested in cooking, please contact karen.ornduff@gmail.com.
If interested in Drinks/Theology, please contact bmcgee750@gmail.com.
If interested, in the video series, please contact betsywisemartin@att.net. If already signed up, no need to do so again. Just hoping to add a few more members as we get started.

PYF

We continue to explore what it means to be open to new ideas, to question our assumptions, and to learn about being an open community. All activities will begin and end in the Youth Room unless otherwise noted.

NOVEMBER 10-12

PYF Retreat.

No PYF at GCC on Sunday November 12.

NOVEMBER 19

PYF Iron Chef!!

NOVEMBER 26

PYF pizza snack and games.

DECEMBER 10

Help us decorate the church on December 17 for Christmas. PYF Christmas Party! Please bring a wrapped gift that costs no more than $15 for our gift exchange.

PYF MISSION TRIP 2018

MISSION TRIP 2018 TO LOUISVILLE 9th -12th Graders 2018-2019

Parent and youth meeting for the 2018 mission trip is on November 15, from 7:00 – 8:00 p.m. in the Mayflower Room. This is an informational meeting to learn about the mission trip, what the high schoolers will be doing, and how this enriches their learning about serving others and about themselves. The mission trip is scheduled for June 10 – 15, 2018.

FAITH FORMATION MINISTRY

The Faith Formation Ministry invites parents of middle and high school students for a discussion focused on "Raising Self-Sufficient Kids". This will be an informal discussion to share information and perspectives starting at 4:00 p.m. on November 12 in the Youth Room. Please join us!

ADVENT DEVOTIONALS

The 2017 Advent devotionals will be available at church on November 12. Pick up your copy of Watch, written by the UCC Still Speaking Writer's Group. Each devotional includes a scripture verse and prayer for each day. "Watch, pay attention, stay wide awake, for the hour is coming" is the theme from Mark 13:35. Advent begins on December 3 and concludes on Christmas day. If you would like a copy mailed to you, please contact Rev. Keckler.

THE LEADERSHIP COMMITTEE seeks nominations for volunteers to serve as Vice Moderator and At-Large Spiritual Council Members for the 2018-2019 church year beginning June 1, 2018. The responsibilities of these roles are:

Vice Moderator-This is a two year term and will ordinarily be followed by nomination for a two-year term as Moderator. The Vice Moderator performs the duties of the moderator when the Moderator is unable to serve and is the Chair of the Leadership Committee. The Vice Moderator is an Officer of the Church and serves on the Executive Committee and Spiritual Council.

At-Large Members-There are three At-Large Members of Spiritual Council. These are two year positions. At-Large members ensure that there is good two-way communication between the Spiritual Council and the Congregation. At-Large members serve as a Spiritual Council liaison on one of the Administrative committees.

Please contact Leadership Committee Chair Jane Hund (jhund1964@gmail.com or 847-977-2806) if you would like more information or want to nominate yourself or another church member for one of these positions.

Increase your balance, strength, and flexibility, and decrease your stress level!

PONDERING IN SILENCE

Saints

God, for all the saints I give you thanks --- for authors of books that have moved me,
for friends whose advice has guided me,
for those who have given me courage,
for those who knew they made a difference and for those who never will.

God, for all the saints I give you thanks.
